DERRY PUBLIC LIBRARY

The special appropriation voted last year has been expended, in accord with the suggestion of the trustees, in redecorating the exterior and interior of the library. The trustees hope that they may be allowed to continue the program inaugurated with the installation of the asphalt tile floor and this year the painting. The program that the trustees have in mind involved an improvement of the lighting facilities over a minimum of three years.

The librarian has continued to render the same courteous, efficient service as has been evidenced the past several years. The resignation of Mrs. Jensen required adjustment in personnel that has been worked out so that at the present time two assistants, Mrs. Christine Butman and Mrs. Willard Whitcomb are dividing the duties. This will, it is anticipated, work out advantageously for trained personnel familiar with our facilities are available in case of illness.

The comment of last year still holds true. The borrowings continue at a high level. The type of reading is commendable. Non-fiction reading is in constant demand. The value of your library as an instrument of self-education is in direct ratio to the demand for such non-fictional reading.

Recreation, study and research are the three types of service rendered to the library. It is the endeavor of the trustees to provide for these in ratio to the public demand for such service. The courteous, helpful attitude on the part of the librarian and staff make it possible to render these services to the reading public.

LIBRARIAN'S REPORT

The 43rd annual report is herewith presented:

Routine work has been carried on as usual. We have had a slight gain over last year's circulation. Non-fiction leading with a gain of 780, while fiction had a drop of 450. The school box circulation is not quite as high as of last year.

Loss of books in circulation is much higher this year. The main reason seems to be that the, people moving from town are neglecting to return their books before leaving. A few have reported books lost from their cars between their homes and the library.

Prompt return of borrowed books, when due, would be appreciated by the librarian. Only one copy of a book is purchased and if it is borrowed and not returned for two or three weeks it deprives others from reading the new books.

We have had many gifts of books the past year, Mrs. Marjorie Hylan gave us a set of "Ridpath's Universal history of literature." Many of the popular books of the year have been given by various patrons of the library. All have been gratefully received by your librarian.

The increase in our budget allowed us to purchase more children's books this year. Many of these are for the very young children. We have a great need of more books for the first three grades. This is the group where they receive very rough usage. They wear out much faster than those for the older groups. The new books of biography and other non-fiction are very popular with the boys and girls of the 5th and 6th grades and Junior High.

Transcribed story hours for the children were held throughout the winter. This was made possible by the gift of a Victor machine by Mrs. Helen Hood. We have had some records given to us and Mr. Arthur Bertrand has kindly loaned us records suitable for the various grades.

Stormy weather prevented many from coming to the library to hear the Christmas Carols during the holidays.

Books are being sent to Shutins. Girl scouts are taking care of this service for the winter.

Mrs. Lillian Jensen resigned her position as assistant librarian Sept. 1st. Mrs. Christine Butman was appointed to take her place with Mrs. Winnifred Harding as 2nd assistant. Mrs. Harding has now resigned and Mrs. Lottie Whitcomb is with us.

Mrs. Harriet Low and your librarian attended the New Hampshire Library Association meeting held at the Plymouth Teachers college. Your librarian and her assistants, Mrs. Butman and Mrs. Harding were in attendance for one day at the New England Library Conference. This conference was held at the New Ocean House, Swampscott, Mass.

The old oil burner, burned out when lightning went through it, was sold for salvage. We tried the plan of selling our discarded books for 5 cents each. This proved so popular that we will continue the plan in the future.

Extension Division of Home Service under Miss Ruth Stimson held several demonstrations in the library. At present art craft classes are held each Wednesday afternoon, Mrs. Edith Lang instructor.

Interesting exhibits have been shown throughout the year. Outstanding among these were the art subjects loaned by Mrs. Walter Pillsbury and Tom Grady. Mr. Grady loaned us his prize winning picture "Still Life." This was entered in the National Army Arts contest and won 2nd prize. It was exhibited at the National Gallery of Arts in Washington, D. C. and at the Fine Arts Museum of Boston, Mass.

"Toys of yesterday" proved a very interesting and amusing exhibit. Toys 25 years old and over were loaned by friends of the library. This collection of toys was of great interest to the older patrons as it recalled many happy memories of their childhood.

Book-Week was observed by the usual display of new books, gay posters and decorations. The particular object this year was a "Treasure chest for children of America." Each child was asked to give at least one favorite book to be sent to a school in the south. The response was gratifying, 8 boxes have been sent or a total of 450 books.

To quote Mrs. Elizabeth Watts, Director of the Hindman school: "Your wonderful boxes of books arrived last week and we appreciate your thoughtfulness in sending the kind of books the children like so well. If you could see the children as the librarian reads to them, or as they come to pick out a new book to take home to read, you would know from their shiny eyes how happy the books are making them."

We hope to be able to send a new box of books once in a while throughout the year.

Many favorable comments have been heard from our patrons on the new paint job in the library.

The Garden Club, under the direction of Mrs. Harding furnished the attractive decorations for the holiday.

We wish to thank those who have helped us make this such a successful year. Those who contributed books, exhibits and decorations for the library and our "Treasure chest." To Mrs. Hood and Mr. Bertrand for making story hour interesting for the children.

Thanks also goes to the newspapers for their publicity for the past year.

TAYLOR LIBRARY

At the annual meeting of the Trustees held in May, Miss Mabel Berry was reappointed Librarian. She continues in her able fashion to carry out the various library services.

The oil burner referred to in the last report has given excellent service, materially simplifying the problem of providing adequate services for the building. Some minor repairs including refinishing part of the floor were made and additional rugs provided.

A new encyclopaedia, "Brittanica Junior," a 15 volume work was purchased. This encyclopaedia prepared under the supervision of the Editors of Encyclopaedia Brittanica has been especially designed to meet the needs of the junior high school age group but will no doubt be found useful by a much wider age group.

Reports of the Librarian and Treasurer follow.

TAYLOR LIBRARY

LIBRARIAN'S REPORT

To the Trustees of Taylor Library the following report for the year ending December 1947 is respectfully submitted:

The normal activities of the library have been carried on together with special book display for the holidays and Book Week.

Unless a library day falls on December 25 or July 4 the library is always open during its usual hours: Tuesday and Saturday afternoons from 2:00-5:00, Tuesday evening 7:00-8:00, Saturday evening 7:00-9:00.

We try to keep abreast of the needs of the school children and the help that it has given them has already justified the purchase of the latest edition of the Junior Brittanica.

Patrons desiring non-fiction not on our shelves may obtain it through our library from the New Hampshire State Library.

Teaching Personnel

Again the problem of teacher replacement was a serious one. The economic advantages of out-of-state or larger city teaching positions attracted 7 of the staff. One teacher retired because of marriage and one other retired. Three teachers were secured for the junior high school who were inexperienced. In the elementary grades all the new teachers to Derry were teachers of several years experience. In almost every instance geographic location was an important factor in securing the services of all these teachers who proved to be valuable instructors. Teaching service and staff morale is at the highest level it has been for several years.

The other factor that is important in meeting the educational needs of pupils is providing adequate tools. Books and supplies fall in the category of tools. The large items in books purchase met certain needs. In Junior High School there were two definite needs. The girls in Home Economics were supplied with a text for the first time since the course has been offered. A broadening of the guidance course so that the graduating class might plan programs of work at the secondary level was inaugurated. This involved supplying the eighth grade with a basic text "Planning Your Career." The extension of this work in guidance will eliminate mistakes of course selection that lessen a pupil's chance of success at the Senior High School level.

At the primary level graded supplementary readers were provided. These give all pupils an opportunity to develop to the fullest their powers in the reading area. The main purpose of such supplementary materials is to provide all children with the opportunity to build a more satisfactory reading foundation. It provides the opportunity for "over learning" so that "forgetting" is less prominent in the succeeding grade.

Science was extended so that in a comparatively short time we will have this portion of the curriculum adequately supplied. The Junior High and the fifth grade at Floyd were supplied this year.

The beginning was made in correcting a situation in the English field. The eighth grade was furnished with a new text which more edequately meets the needs of the pupils for secondary work.

Geographies were provided for the fourth grade. The problem of sufficient number and variety of texts was thus attacked at all grade levels. The availability of state aid funds made possible the general program embarked upon this year.

Proposed expenditures will complete the science and English program and provide reference materials in all schools. Provisions for the basic subjects plus the extension of curricula materials will afford an educational opportunity that will more adequately meet the needs of all.

Physical Plant

The regular program of building maintenance was followed out as usual. This involved painting by the janitors of two rooms, varnishing of floors, refinishing desks and miscellaneous minor repairs. In addition the cesspool at Oak St. was capped in a safer manner. The urinal at Oak St., a course of constant trouble, was fixed so that the wastes are carried away more satisfactorily. The so called music room at Oak St. was renovated. The drinking fountain, on the second floor, at Oak St. was replaced.

During the Christmas vacation the foundation of a central kitchen to serve as the center of a broadened hot lunch program was begun. A stove, sink and some shelving were installed. The continuance of this program will result in a kitchen that will be adequate in every respect.

A program of improved seating was also inaugurated. Deliveries are still slow but there are on order at present sufficient modern adjustable seating units to replace one room of the antiquated non-adjustable seats in Junior High.

Much of this program of improvement of physical plant was made possible through the broadened state aid program.

Proposed as a continuance of this program of physical improvement that will aid in the instructional area are the following: The beginning of a program of lighting improvement, the installation of facilities for the science program at junior high, equipping the home economics laboratory with more adequate and modern furniture and installation of a water heater at Floyd. These projects are the continuation of a program of modernization that has been long delayed. Shortages of materials and labor was and continues to be a deterrent as far as rapid progress is concerned.

Finances

The overall budget shows an increase of $6,833. The increase of estimated income of $8,550 allows for a decrease in tax levy of $1,717.

An analysis of the increases reveals that salaries for all personnel account for $10,565. This item includes provision for an additional first grade teacher to care for the anticipated increase in entering pupils. Transportation has been increased $2,000. Retirement for teachers is also increased $560. This amount is established by statute. Hot lunch is substituted for other activities and increased $225. This is necessary to meet the dietary standards set by the Federal and State agencies administering the program. Other items have nominal increases. The elimination of a deficiency appropriation and the special appropriation from current operating budget plus a decrease in the text book item balances these items sufficiently to make the proposed budget $6,833 in excess of last year.

Income has been increased $8,550.00 These figures are on the basis of the actual income for the current year, in which all items except trust funds show an increase.

Two special articles involving $3,000 are presented to the voters of the district for consideration. One involves fencing a gift plot for playground use and the other inaugurates a program creating a capital reserve to prepare for a building program which future elementary enrollments will necessitate.

Conclusion

The educational program of the nation, state and community face problems in the immediate future that are serious and involve heavy financial responsibilities.

The first which faces the whole nation is the problem of school housing. To houes adequately the unprecedented number of elementary pupils who will be entering school in the next 5 years requires an expansion of existing facilities in all communities. In light of this fact the warrant has an article which enables the district, in a small way, to begin to prepare for the needed expansion.

A second problem which is also of serious import is the matter of teacher procurement. The economic situation of teachers had been such that the number interested in entering the field has been limited. The educational system of any community cannot be any better than its teachers. In fact of a continuing shortage of elementary teachers the problem of obtaining and retaining trained competent personnel becomes a problem that must be met with measures that enable the schools to be staged adequately. In effect the financial support of public schools will probably continue to rise until these problems are solved.

The work of the schools has progressed satisfactorily. The problems involved in operating a school system are many and varied. The solution of the problems is and will continue to be a matter of concern to all. That problems have been solved as satisfactorily as they have is the result of the cooperation of all. Parents, teachers, pupils and school board members have conscientiously sought to solve cooperatively the problems that have arisen. This cooperation, I appreciate sincerely, and with such cooperation good educational opportunity for all children will be provided.

Physical Plant

The greatest improvement in several years in the physical plant was made since the last report. The repairs included retopping the chimney, and pointing up masonry, rebuilding the steps on the front porch, and replacing several rotted window sash in the cellar.

The painting of the exterior improved the appearance of the building as well as preserving it. The greatest change was produced in the classrooms. The electrical fixtures were replaced by modern fluorescents with sufficient light to produce 30 foot candles on each desk. In order to have the greatest efficiency the decorative scheme was changed to give higher reflective-value. In addition there is created, I believe, a happier busier attitude on the part of the students who are working in a more home like, pleasanter atmosphere. There is no question that the physical well being of the children is improved by the relief of eye strain due to the change in both rooms.

The question of board surface is being investigated at the present time to ascertain if we can add to the attractiveness of the room and also increase the visibility of written material on the board. A recent development in the field of writing surface makes it possible to use colored surfaces which will harmonize with the room color scheme and at the same time increase the reflective factor and visibility.

Another project under consideration is the installation of germicidal lamps. The engineering department of General Electric are expected to make recommendations in regard to this. In those communities where these facilities have been installed the incidence of diseases caused by air borne bacteria has definitely been reduced.

It is a hope that we may have one of the best school plants in the state with the best of conditions for physical and mental health of our students. The completed and contemplated projects are directed towards the fulfillment of such a hope.

Miss Josephine Stewart resigned to accept a position in Oregon. Mrs. Sophie Raudonis, a teacher of several years experience was secured in her place. The work of both rooms has progressed satisfactorily. The school has been fortunate to retain Mrs. Follansbee during these years when teacher turnover has been excessively high.

Both your teachers conscientiously strive to contribute to the development of the whole child. Lessons of sportsmanship, safety, health, and attitudes that will lead to the development of good citizens are taught both by precept and example. The development of group consciousness and self discipline is evidenced almost daily.

The enrollment continues to show evidence of increases. The statistical data complied by the actuarial department of Metropolitan Life Insurance Co. indicates that we can expect a peak enrollment in 1956. The figures indicate practically a third higher enrollment than we had in 1945. This is figured on a national basis. If we follow national trends and seemingly we will it would indicate approximately 65 pupils in that year. In light of the figures a reasonable estimate is that our capacity will be taxed by the anticipated enrollments.

Books are being purchased to provide a wider range of subject matter and degree of difficulty. Science books were added. Supplementary readers at the primary level were purchased. Gradually these additions will mean the development of room libraries that will provide all kinds of opportunities for youngsters to develop special interests. It will develop special abilities. It will develop critical reading habits and permit the teacher to begin the development of sound methods of study and research.

Budget

Despite increases in necessary items the decreased estimated number of tuition students has decreased to the point where an increase of only $20 in the gross budget is proposed. The increase in estimated assets is sufficient to result in a $540 decrease in tax levy.

This is a 5% decrease despite rising costs. It can be attributed to the amount of state aid made available to the district.

Conclusion

The development of the physical facilities is the beginning of a definite program to provide the best educational opportunity for the childen of the district. Health and physical well being are basic of the development of the child. With an ideal physical environment the possibility of a full development is greatly enhanced.

The progress made in providing this type of environment is due to the continued interest of the school board. The support and encouragement they have so willingly afforded makes possible a program of progress. With the cooperation of all pupils, parents, and teachers added to the helpful attitude of the board the future enducational opportunity for the children of the district is bright.

Respectfully submitted,
Everton H. Parkinson
